

Dashboard

1. The pie chart shows the total number of people hospitalized in each state.

2. Below graph represents test results source based on number of tests conducted among people.

3. The horizontal bar chart depicts the total number of Antibody tests conducted in each state along with the positive and negative test results.

4. The below bar graph represents the information related to hospitalized data. It displays count of currently hospitalized along with number of discharged patients based on states.

